

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

A multiplication array is divided into divided Wallace tree arrays each performing multiplication by addition in a tree-like form. An addition result is transmitted from the divided Wallace tree arrays to a final addition circuit. Thus, an interconnection line length of a critical path of a multiplication apparatus can be reduced.

5

00766269-010901